Yard Waste 2022

Let's Keep Clarkstown Clean

Dear Resident:

We all have a stake in keeping Clarkstown clean. That's why our Town developed a comprehensive program for Yard Waste, Household Garbage Collection, Bulk Pick-Up, and Recycling.

This guide explains all of the details for Yard Waste Pick-Ups only. Separate mailers will explain the rules for Loose Leaf and Household Garbage and Bulk Pick-Up.

Please use the map to the right or log onto our website, clarkstownhighway.com, to identify your area and the corresponding schedule. Please note that pick-up is not available in the Villages of Upper Nyack and Spring Valley.

Thank you,

George Hoehmann

Yard Waste Pick-Up

Yard Waste Placement

You or your landscaper must place your yard waste at the edge of your property—not in the street—or arrange for it to be removed.

For your safety DO NOT place yard waste in the following areas:

- In the street
- At intersections
- School bus stops
- Near fire hydrants
- Over storm drains
- Over underground utility box

THIS LAW WILL BE STRICTLY ENFORCED.
Pursuant to the NYS Vehicle and Traffic Law, Section 1220.

Biodegradable Bags

Mixed yard waste is acceptable for pick-up in biodegradable bags only. Plastic bags will not be accepted. Free biodegradable paper bags are available to residents at the following locations:

- Town Hall/DEFM
- Highway Department
- Recreation and Parks Department
- Community Centers

Clarkstown's Landscapers Licensing Law

All landscapers who do business in our town are required to be licensed. This is to ensure that landscapers remain committed to keeping our streets safe by keeping them clear of leaves, twigs, and other types of yard waste. To learn more, please visit clarkstown.gov/highway/landscaping.
